

Assistant Professor (Chinese Language and Digital Humanities) (Ref: 2400969)
Department of Chinese Language Studies
Faculty of Humanities

The Department of Chinese Language Studies of the Faculty of Humanities seeks applications for one full-time academic position at the rank of Assistant Professor. We are looking for a highly qualified and experienced candidate to join our strong and experienced academic team specialising in Chinese linguistics and applied linguistics. In order to echo with the Faculty's strategic development theme, we invite applications in the field of Chinese language and digital humanities.

The appointee will contribute to the development of the research capacity of the University, including the strengthening of scholarship in the relevant strategic research theme(s). Responsibilities will mainly include:

- Conducting research and producing publications/research output in the field of Chinese language education (L1 and/or L2).
- Initiating research projects, securing external research grants (e.g., ECS/GRF), and engaging actively in research-related activities.
- Undertaking teaching duties at undergraduate and/or postgraduate levels and/or supervision of students at varied levels.
- Helping to strengthen the connection/partnership with local, national and international/external academic and professional organisations.
- Participating in and being an active member of the University's community at departmental and faculty levels.

The ideal candidate should have a Doctoral Degree in Chinese linguistics or applied linguistics, with a strong track record in relevant research and teaching experience. Knowledge and expertise in digital humanities and e-learning will be an advantage.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 15% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 24 September 2024. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.
