

Executive Officer II (Ref: 2500343)
Department of Curriculum and Instruction

The appointee will be responsible for providing a wide range of executive support to academic programmes and research-related matters in the Department and carrying out general administrative duties as required. He or she will also serve as secretary to various departmental committees, write reports and proposals, liaise with programme personnel, students and external bodies, support department coordination and event management, supervise junior staff and perform other duties as assigned. He/She should be flexible in working hours. Occasional duty travel may be required.

Applicants should have a recognized Bachelor's degree with several years of relevant post-qualification full-time working experience. They should have high proficiency in both English and Chinese (Cantonese and Putonghua), and excellent interpersonal and organization skills. They should also be self-motivated, capable of working independently and multitasking, and willing to accept new challenges. Experience in programme planning and administration in tertiary education institutions will be an advantage.
