

Teaching Assistant (Ref: 2500344)
Department of Curriculum and Instruction

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction is seeking inspirational and energetic candidates as Teaching Assistants to support its growing scope of learning and teaching initiatives and endeavours. This is an exciting opportunity for those who wish to be part of a committed and enthusiastic team eager to develop their career in higher education institutions.

Successful applicants will become part of a team of highly qualified educators, contributing to a wide variety of learning and teaching activities. Their responsibilities mainly include Teaching Administrative Support Duties:

- Assisting in the preparation and production of course materials and resources.
- Supporting the coordination and administrative tasks involved in organizing and managing alumni activities and school visits.
- Providing support for various departmental learning and teaching project activities as assigned.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree, preferably a Master's degree, in Education with some experience in providing outreach/teaching support. They should have an excellent command of both written English and Chinese; proficiency in spoken English and Putonghua is preferred. They should also be self-motivated, well-organized, have good interpersonal and communication skills, work independently and collectively as good team members, and work under pressure. Those with experience providing teaching support in tertiary institutions will have an advantage.
