

Senior Lecturer II / Lecturer I / Lecturer II (Ref: 2500780)

Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures

The Academy for Applied Policy Studies and Education Futures (AAPSEF) is seeking an inspirational and energetic candidate for the position Senior Lecturer II / Lecturer I / Lecturer II to support its expanding scope of learning and teaching initiatives. This is an exciting opportunity for individuals who wish to contribute to dedicated teams and advance their careers in higher education.

The appointee will join the vibrant AAPSEF team to deliver a variety of learning and teaching activities in programmes, e.g.: The Executive Master of Public Administration and Leadership programme (EMPAL). Responsibilities mainly include: i) Undertaking teaching duties at undergraduate and/or postgraduate levels, and/or supervising postgraduate students; ii) Formulating strategies for the development of the Academy that are in alignment with the strategic direction of the University; iii) Overseeing the planning and execution of various initiatives, events, and programmes to ensure they achieve the KPI's set out for them; iv) Supporting the development of the Academy, working closely with the Executive Committee Members and Centre Directors of the Academy; v) Developing and maintaining strategic partnership of the Academy with stakeholders both Faculties and Departments within the University, and external parties including but not limited to donors and service users; and vi) Contributing to curriculum and programme development, programme and course management and partake in the Academy's activities and represent programme(s) in meetings and various boards and committees, and provide good service contributions to the University and the community.

For the post of Senior Lecturer II, applicants should have a Master's degree, preferably in the Public Administration, Sociology, and/or Economics discipline, plus a minimum of 8 years' relevant post-qualification teaching experience in a relevant subject applied for; or preferably a Doctoral degree, preferably in the Public Administration, Sociology, and/or Economics discipline, plus a minimum of 3 years' relevant post-qualification teaching experience in the subject applied for.

For the post of Lecturer I, applicants should have a Master's degree, preferably in the Public Administration, Sociology, and/or Economics discipline, plus a minimum of 4 years' relevant post-qualification teaching experience in the subject applied for.

Applicants with less teaching experience may be considered for the post of Lecturer II.

Applicants with specialization in China and Hong Kong studies will be highly preferred.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary for the positions of Lecturer I and Lecturer II, and totaling up to 15% of the basic salary for the position of Senior Lecturer II), leave, medical and dental benefits, and, where applicable, housing benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV on or before 5 August 2025. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent's work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.