

Project Officer (Ref: 2501150)

The Joseph Lau Luen Hung Charitable Trust Asia Pacific Centre for Leadership & Change

The appointee will assist a school principal preparation programme and related courses commissioned by the Education Bureau. The appointee will report to and assist the programme coordinator in implementing off-campus and on-campus learning events, handling procurement procedures, designing and producing project learning and promotion materials, liaising with programme participants as well as related internal and external stakeholders, supervising student helpers, providing secretarial support for programme meetings, preparing draft final project reports and performing other duties as assigned by the programme coordinator. The initial appointment will be for a period of 2 years, depending on the appointee's qualifications and experience, and with the possibility of renewal subject to mutual agreement.

Applicants should have a Bachelor's degree with several years of post-qualification work experience, preferably in tertiary institutions. They should also have high proficiency in both written and spoken English and Cantonese and good interpersonal, organizational and leadership skills. They should be proactive team players, attentive to details, and self-motivated. Those with experience in professional programme management and who are immediately available are preferred.

For more information on the Centre, please visit this website: <http://www.eduhk.hk/apclc>.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include the University's Voluntary Contributions to MPF Scheme or a contract-end lump sum payment (totaling up to 10% of the basic salary), leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post.
